

October 4, 2012

Gilliland & Associates, P.C.
7700 Leesburg Pike, Suite 402B
Falls Church, VA 22043

We are providing this letter in connection with your review of the statements of financial position, and statements of activities and cash flows of World Information Technology and Services Alliance as of December 31, 2011 and 2010 and for the periods 2011 and 2010 for the purpose of obtaining limited assurance that there are no material modifications that should be made to the financial statements in order for them to be in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. We confirm that we are responsible for the fair presentation of the financial statements of financial position, changes in net assets, and cash flows in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and the selection and application of the accounting policies.

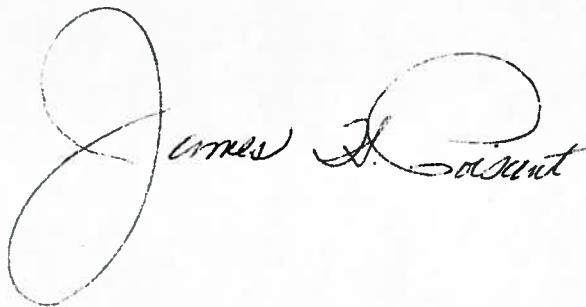

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered material, regardless of size, if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person using the information would be changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement.

We confirm, to the best of our knowledge and belief, as of October 4, 2012, the following representations made to you during your reviews.

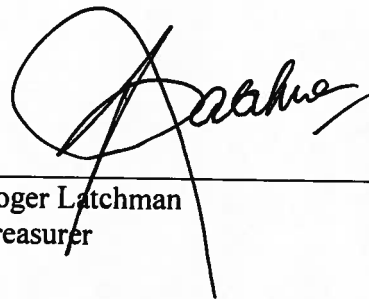

1. The financial statements referred to above are fairly presented in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.
2. We have made available to you all –
 - a. Financial records and related data.
 - b. Minutes of the meetings of trustees, board of directors, and committees of directors, or summaries of actions of recent meetings for which minutes have not been prepared.
3. There have been no communications from regulatory agencies concerning noncompliance with, or deficiencies in, financial reporting practices.

4. There are no material transactions that have not been properly reflected in the accounting records underlying the financial statements.
5. We acknowledge our responsibility for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.
6. We acknowledge our responsibility for designing, implementing, and maintaining internal controls relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements.
7. We acknowledge our responsibility to prevent and detect fraud.
8. We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud affecting the entity involving management or others where the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements, including any communications from employees, former employees, or other
9. We have no plans or intentions that may materially affect the carrying value or classification of assets, liabilities or net assets balances.
10. No material losses exist that have not been properly accrued or disclosed in the financial statements.
11. There are no –
 - a. Violations or possible violations of laws or regulations whose effects should be considered for disclosure in the financial statements or as a basis for recording a loss contingency.
 - b. Unasserted claims or assessments that our lawyer has advised us are probable of assertion that must be disclosed in accordance with FASB ASC 450, Contingencies.
 - c. Other material liabilities or gain or loss contingencies that are required to be accrued or disclosed by FASB ASC 450.
12. The Organization has satisfactory title of all owned assets, and there are no liens or encumbrances on such assets nor has any asset been pledged as collateral.
13. There are no designations of net assets that were not properly authorized and approved or reclassifications of net assets that have not been properly reflected in the financial statements.

14. We have complied with all restrictions on resources and all aspects of contractual agreements that would have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance.
15. The following had been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements:
 - a. Related party transactions including sales, purchases, loans, transfers, leasing arrangements, and guarantees, and amounts receivable from or payable to related parties.
 - b. Guarantees, whether written or oral, under which the organization is contingently liable.
16. We are in agreement with the adjusting journal entries, if any, you have recommended, and they have been posted to the organization's accounts.
17. There are no estimates that may be subject to material change in the near-term that have not been properly disclosed in the financial statements. We understand that near-term means the period within one year of the date of the financial statements. In addition, we have no knowledge of concentrations existing at the date of the financial statements that make the Organization vulnerable to the risk of a near-term severe impact that have not been properly disclosed in the financial statements. We believe the estimates and the bases for allocation of direct costs by function are reasonable in the circumstances.
18. No events have occurred subsequent to the balance sheet date and through the date of this letter that would require adjustments to or disclosure in the aforementioned financial statements.
19. We have responded fully and truthfully to all inquires made to us by you during your review.

Dr. James. H. Poisant
Secretary General

Roger Latchman
Treasurer

October 4, 2012

Gilliland & Associates, P.C.
7700 Leesburg Pike, Suite 402B
Falls Church, VA 22043

We are providing this letter in connection with your review of the statements of financial position, and statements of activities and cash flows of World Information Technology and Services Alliance as of December 31, 2011 and 2010 and for the periods 2011 and 2010 for the purpose of obtaining limited assurance that there are no material modifications that should be made to the financial statements in order for them to be in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. We confirm that we are responsible for the fair presentation of the financial statements of financial position, changes in net assets, and cash flows in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and the selection and application of the accounting policies.

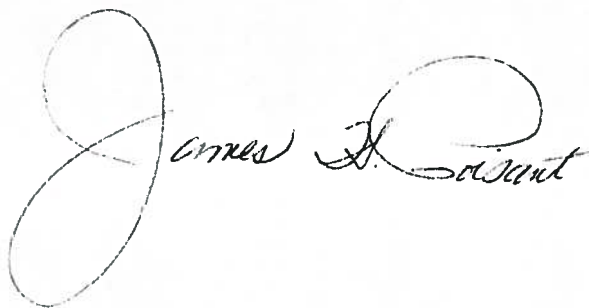

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered material, regardless of size, if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person using the information would be changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement.

We confirm, to the best of our knowledge and belief, as of October 4, 2012, the following representations made to you during your reviews.

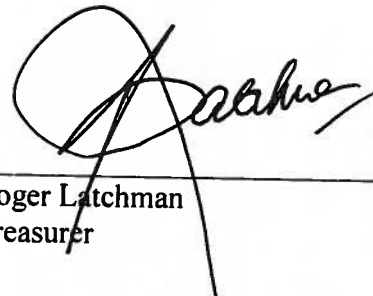

1. The financial statements referred to above are fairly presented in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.
2. We have made available to you all –
 - a. Financial records and related data.
 - b. Minutes of the meetings of trustees, board of directors, and committees of directors, or summaries of actions of recent meetings for which minutes have not been prepared.
3. There have been no communications from regulatory agencies concerning noncompliance with, or deficiencies in, financial reporting practices.

4. There are no material transactions that have not been properly reflected in the accounting records underlying the financial statements.
5. We acknowledge our responsibility for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.
6. We acknowledge our responsibility for designing, implementing, and maintaining internal controls relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements.
7. We acknowledge our responsibility to prevent and detect fraud.
8. We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud affecting the entity involving management or others where the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements, including any communications from employees, former employees, or other
9. We have no plans or intentions that may materially affect the carrying value or classification of assets, liabilities or net assets balances.
10. No material losses exist that have not been properly accrued or disclosed in the financial statements.
11. There are no –
 - a. Violations or possible violations of laws or regulations whose effects should be considered for disclosure in the financial statements or as a basis for recording a loss contingency.
 - b. Unasserted claims or assessments that our lawyer has advised us are probable of assertion that must be disclosed in accordance with FASB ASC 450, Contingencies.
 - c. Other material liabilities or gain or loss contingencies that are required to be accrued or disclosed by FASB ASC 450.
12. The Organization has satisfactory title of all owned assets, and there are no liens or encumbrances on such assets nor has any asset been pledged as collateral.
13. There are no designations of net assets that were not properly authorized and approved or reclassifications of net assets that have not been properly reflected in the financial statements.

14. We have complied with all restrictions on resources and all aspects of contractual agreements that would have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance.
15. The following had been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements:
- a. Related party transactions including sales, purchases, loans, transfers, leasing arrangements, and guarantees, and amounts receivable from or payable to related parties.
 - b. Guarantees, whether written or oral, under which the organization is contingently liable.
16. We are in agreement with the adjusting journal entries, if any, you have recommended, and they have been posted to the organization's accounts.
17. There are no estimates that may be subject to material change in the near-term that have not been properly disclosed in the financial statements. We understand that near-term means the period within one year of the date of the financial statements. In addition, we have no knowledge of concentrations existing at the date of the financial statements that make the Organization vulnerable to the risk of a near-term severe impact that have not been properly disclosed in the financial statements. We believe the estimates and the bases for allocation of direct costs by function are reasonable in the circumstances.
18. No events have occurred subsequent to the balance sheet date and through the date of this letter that would require adjustments to or disclosure in the aforementioned financial statements.
19. We have responded fully and truthfully to all inquires made to us by you during your review.

Dr. James. H. Poisant
Secretary General

Roger Latchman
Treasurer